

Announcement

Faculty of Commerce and Accountancy, Thammasat University

Job Opportunity: International Faculty (Research Track)

Faculty of Commerce and Accountancy (as known as Thammasat Business School), Thammasat University accepts an application for a position of "International Faculty (Research Track)" which is a non-tenure appointment. Successful candidates will demonstrate a strong commitment to high-quality research work, outstanding teaching and supervision services at the doctoral level. Currently, Thammasat Business School offers three job opportunities as follows:

- | | | |
|---|---|-----------|
| > International Faculty (Research Track in Accounting) | 1 | Position |
| > International Faculty (Research Track in Business Administration) | 2 | Positions |

Qualification:

1. Non-Thai citizen
2. Hold a PhD degree or equivalent in the field of accounting or business administration from the universities which are certified by Office of the Civil Service Commission or from leading universities in an international level
3. Hold an academic title of "Associate Professor" or "Professor"
4. Possess an educational background as follows:
 - a. Bachelor's degree with minimum GPA 3.00 and no Grade "F" in the major course;
 - b. Master's degree with minimum GPA 3.25;Both degrees are granted from the universities certified by the Thammasat University Council.
5. Possess a track record of international publications

Work Requirement:

1. Publish high-quality research work under the name of Thammasat Business School
2. Perform outstanding teaching skills
3. Develop a body of knowledge in line with the academic direction of Thammasat Business School, through which the Faculty Research Fund can be granted.
4. Carry out any tasks assigned by Thammasat Business School Management

Applicants can submit the resume, a copy of transcript (Bachelor's Degree, Master's Degree & Doctoral's Degree), publication, a copy of passport & one photo via email: interfca@tbs.tu.ac.th by April 30, 2015.

Announcement made on January 26, 2015

(Professor Dr. Siriluck Rotchanakitumnuai)

Dean